Yearbook Staff

Your Editors

Class of 2019,

Our time together has flown by! We hope this yearbook captures all of the moments you want to cherish in the future and you can look back on the great moments we have shared. Thank you to the rest of the Yearbook Staff for helping us meet our deadlines and collect pictures, and also thank you to Mrs. Mattingly for making yearbook so enjoyable for the whole team.

Your Editors,
 Samantha Edwards and Bianca Varela

Principal Daniel Riley

This is my first year as principal and I can't express enough how awesome it has been! I owe a lot of that to YOU...the class of 2019. You will always be my very first graduating class! I feel we've made connections that capture the spirit of what it truly means to be a Marlborough Panther. There are the big things like a successful Spirit Week, homecoming, Powder Puff, winter concerts, and so many more awesome memories to come before the end of the school year. There are also the little things...the day-to-day experience of seeing you smiling in the hallways, enjoying lunch, and working hard in class. You've chosen President Barack Obama as the influence for your class quote. I can't think of a better person to help capture the essence of your graduating class. President Obama also said our great nation is best defined by, "the young person who comes out of the shadows to demand the right to dream. That's what America is about." I have no doubt that we will witness and bear the fruits of the dreams that come from this class. I will be rooting for every one of you. Always remember...you are a Panther, and MHS is your home away from home.

Class Officers

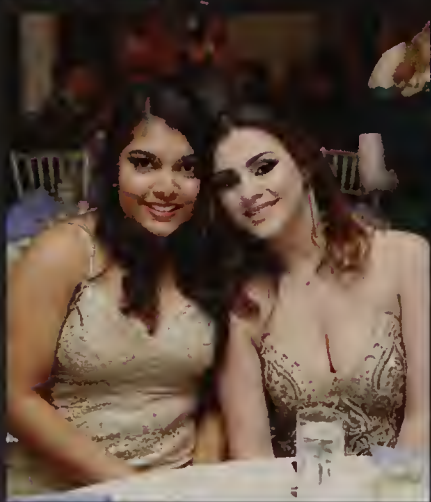

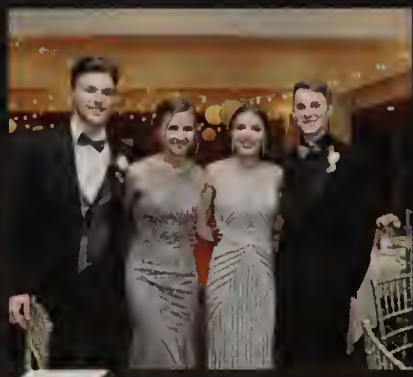

To the Class of 2019,

Congratulations! We know that it has definitely been a bumpy road for many of us on our journey through these four years, but we can say with complete sincerity that this class has shown so much dedication and spirit to persevere through it all. It's time for us to look back at all of our successes as individuals and as a group. We have some of the most talented and passionate students that MHS has to offer graduating this year and that extends across the artists, musicians, intellectuals, club leaders, athletes, actors, and everyone in between! Each of you have truly inspired us for four years straight. This group of students has shown us as class officers that there are always people that have your back here, and we hope that you remember us as your family as well.

Wishing you all the best on your everlasting journeys!

Your class officers,
Morgan Raun, Olivia Rainville, Miguel Lopez, Sydney Kinz
